

Inflation: Cheaper food, except eggs

A big cause of concern for every individual and household in India is inflation. According to October 2018 data, increased inflation in the fuel and light segment has made fuel prices shoot up. Food and beverage and produce in general have become cheaper, especially vegetables, but eggs have become more expensive.

CPI: consumer price index. All India CPI combined inflation. October data is provisional