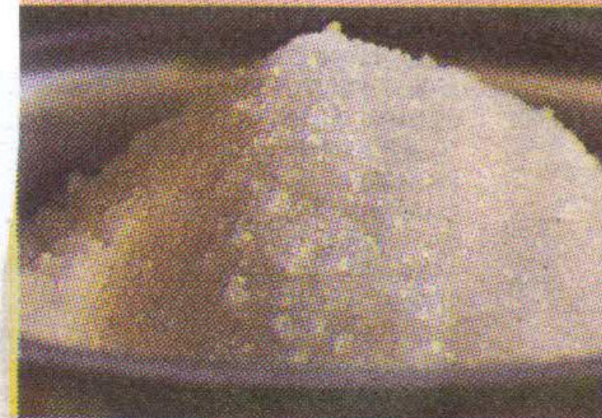
Sugar, coffee, cocoa rise



London, June 11

Sugar, coffee and cocoa futures on ICE firmed on Monday, supported by a broader rally in stocks, commodities and the euro after a bailout for Spain's banking sector eased some concerns about its ability to survive the euro zone debt crisis. Benchmark July raw sugar futures rose above the psychologically important 20 cents a lb level and were at 20.26 cents, up 0.28 cent at 1144 GMT. London August white sugar was up $9.30 at $586.80 a tonne.Arabica second-month coffee futures rose 0.85 cent to $1.5825 a lb. Robusta futures on Liffe eased, with September down $8 at $2,070 a tonne. ICE July cocoa futures rose $16 to $2,216 a tonne, while Liffe September cocoa futures traded up £3 at £1,524 a tonne.
