

Sugar prices unchanged

Mumbai, February 25

Sugar prices on the Vashi wholesale market ruled unchanged on routine demand-supply on Tuesday. Maharashtra's mills sold more than 75,000 bags at ₹10-20 higher including one rail rake (about 27,000 bags) to neighbouring States and local traders. Arrivals at Vashi market were around 59-60 truckloads (of 100 bags each) while local dispatches were 57-58 truck loads. On Monday, 19-20 mills offered tenders and sold 78,000-80,000 bags at ₹2,570-2,670 (₹2,550-2,670) for S-grade and ₹2,760-2,820 (₹2,750-2,810) for M-grade. Bombay Sugar Merchants Association's spot rates were: S-grade ₹2,732-2,825 (₹2,732-2,825) and M-grade was ₹2,862-2,962 (₹2,862-2,962). Naka delivery rates were: S-grade ₹2,700-2,800 (₹2,700-2,800) and M-grade ₹2,830-2,930 (₹2,830-2,930). OUR CORRESPONDENT

Business time ✓

26/2/14