

■ Adequate Stocks, Thin Trade Keeps Jaggery Steady

NEW DELHI: Steady conditions prevailed at the wholesale jaggery market on November 19 as prices moved in a narrow range on alternate bouts of trading and settled at previous levels. Marketmen said adequate stocks position against restricted buying by stockists and local parties mainly kept gur prices around previous levels. Following are November 19 rates (in ₹ per quintal): Gur chakku ₹2,500-2,600, pedi ₹2,500-2,600, dhayya ₹2,700-2,800 and shakkar ₹2,800-2,900.

The Economic Times

20/11/14

✓ R